

CHALLENGE SPORTIVE HELPING HANDS - RULES OF ENGAGEMENT

ARTICLE 1 – THE CONCEPT

The Helping Hands Sportive Challenge is a race connected organized by Helping Hands Association in order to:

- a- propose a sportive event in friendly spirit
- b- collect funds for Helping Hands Association

This race is a sportive challenge, but also an event adapted to all.

A selection of distance is proposed depending on the participant capacity: run or walk 5 or 10 kms, biking with no limit, intergenerational challenge for kids, adults, grand-parents running or walking.

ARTICLE 2 – USAGE

In order to register the sportive session, the participation will need to have an equipment (connected application to download for free on smart phone or connected watch)

The participant will import a GPX file and will post on line on the site.

a-The participant has a connected watch (Garmin, Polar, Suunto, TomTom...providing a gpx file):

Check before that the watch can register the session in a GPX format & post on line on the site.

b- The participant already has a connected application providing a GPX file (Strava, Decathlon Coach, Endomondo, Runkeeper, Zapsports...): Import the GPX file once the session is finished.

The participant will respect the 'Charte éco-responsable du coureur connecté' and all sanitary rules during the entire challenge.

The participant can take his photo before and after the challenge in order to compete for the special prize of the jury category. The special prize of jury will be selected by 3 members of Helping Hands.
